

Vivun, Inc. - Expert Community Guidelines

Community Overview:

A Vivun Online Community (“Online Community”) is any virtual space where members have been identified by or invited by Vivun or any member of a Vivun Online Community (“Community Members”).

It is important that Community Members feel that Online Communities are safe spaces. As such, by participating all Community Members acknowledge and agree to both these Community Guidelines as well as the Vivun Terms of Service and the Vivun Privacy Policy.

Vivun enforces the following Online Community Rules, and by joining an Online Community, you agree to adhere to these rules and guidelines or risk permanent removal.

Online Community Rules:

Participating an Online Community means you’ll be able to publicly post comments, photos, and other content; send messages and other communications to other Community Members, and submit suggestions, ideas, comments, questions, links, media, or other information (collectively we’ll refer to these actions as “Online Content”)

1. You must be 18 to participate an Online Community. Sorry, no kids allowed!
2. Online Content is only permitted when it does not violate these Community Guidelines or the Vivun Terms of Service. Additionally, Online Content is not permitted where it is illegal, obscene, threatening, defamatory, invasive of privacy, infringing of intellectual property rights or otherwise injurious to third parties or objectionable, and does not consist of or contain software viruses, political campaigning, commercial solicitation, email addresses, URLs, phone numbers, physical addresses or other forms of contact information, chain letters, mass mailings, or any form of “spam.”

Examples of prohibited Online Content include the following:

- The use of sexualized language or imagery, and making any sexual advances of any kind
- Trolling, insulting or derogatory comments, including personal or political attacks

- Public or private harassment, including discriminatory or prejudicial comments
 - Publishing others' private information, such as a physical or email address, without their explicit permission
 - The use of any type of harmful link or activity that would be considered illegal
 - Other conduct which could reasonably be considered inappropriate in a professional setting
3. You must be open and honest about who you are and your intentions. This means that you may not use a false email address, impersonate any person or entity, or otherwise mislead other Community Members as to the origin of who you are or any Online Content you submit.
 4. Your conduct should be guided by common sense and basic etiquette. Any opinions, advice, statements or other information provided or made available by third parties in the Online Community are, yours, or those of the respective authors and not of Vivun.
 5. You agree that you are responsible for your Online Content. Your Online Content includes items that you post, submit, or make available to others, and for any consequences thereof. Vivun has the right, but not the obligation, to monitor, edit, to not post and/or to remove any Online Content.
 6. Be professional and respectful to other members. This means that you will communicate with empathy, give other Community Members the benefit of the doubt, and that you will be mindful of how others want to be addressed. In other words, just be decent. Not every Community Member will agree with one another, nor will you like everyone you meet, that being said, your participation in the Online Community requires you to show a high level of respect for every Community Member.
 7. Be respectful of differing opinions, viewpoints, and experiences. Each member comes with unique experiences and knowledge and each member has been vetted by our community board as a valuable contributor.
 8. Use All Platforms And Tools For Their Intended Uses
 - Slack:
 1. Ensure your Online Content is Relevant: Only post in Slack channels items that are relevant to that channel.

2. Be Thoughtful When You Post: Please don't post just a link to something, or thought with no context. Your focus should always be on starting or furthering a conversation.
- Meetsy:
 1. Be respectful of individuals' schedules and do not pressure anyone to meet you in person.
 2. Use video and chat features to network and build professional relationships.
 3. Join small groups and 1:1 match programs that are relevant to you and do not interrupt or troll ones that are not.
9. No Selling, Spamming, or Self Promoting. Do not promote or share your own products, events, links, or articles unless it's something created specifically for the Solutions Consulting community and relevant to the thread in which you are posting it. The same goes for direct messaging – we consider messaging community members with the intent to sell, spam or self-promote, akin to harassment and you will be removed. If anybody sends you a message with an intention of acquiring or inviting you to join their brand, please contact the Vivun Online Community Members.

Enforcement Policy

XC has a strict one-strike policy. If a member is found in violation of the above guidelines or any of the community rules, members will receive a written warning of their behavior and be put on probation. If additional incursion takes place, members will immediately be removed and banned from the community.

If the initial behavior is severe and or illegal, a warning will not be given and the member will be removed immediately.

Additionally, the community board, made up of both members of the community and the Vivun team, can remove any members without cause.

All Community Members acknowledge that they, as a Community Member, are here at Vivun's invitation and have no right to persist as Community Members. Vivun can terminate any membership at any time and for any reason.

Reporting Guidelines

If a Community Member finds another Community Member in violation of the Vivun Online Community Guidelines, they are to be instructed to reach out to communityconduct@vivun.com. Remember, when you see bad behavior, don't reply and don't engage. It encourages bad behavior by acknowledging it, consumes your energy, and wastes everyone's time.

Additional Legal Terms:

No Relationship Created

Nothing in these Guidelines nor any Community Member's use of the Online Community creates or is intended to create an association, trust, partnership, joint venture or any other entity or similar legal relationship between Vivun and any Community Member, or impose a trust, partnership or fiduciary duty, obligation, or liability on or with respect to either Vivun or a Community Member.

Data Retention and Deletion of Data

We will retain and use your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements, but barring legal requirements, will delete any profile you have created with Vivun upon receipt of your request and within a reasonable time period (not to exceed 180 days). For more information please see the Vivun Privacy Policy.
